

Wimberley Place in Twin Creeks provides estates

12:00 AM CDT on Sunday, May 4, 2008

Wimberley Place offers estates in the sought-after master-planned community of Twin Creeks in Allen.

This Hillwood Residential neighborhood of 73 oversized, three-quarter- to 1-acre wooded, golf course homesites is surrounded by landscaping and mature trees.

Homes in this gated enclave undergo strict architectural review through a committee.

Luxury builders Bob Bobbitt Company, Crescent Signature Homes, Tony Rossi Custom Homes, Rick Shipley Luxury Homes and Steve Roberts Luxury Homes offer estates priced from $1.5 million to more than $3 million at Wimberley Place.

Each builder currently features inventory homes under construction. Many of these residences are nearing completion and will be ready for occupancy in the coming weeks.

To learn more about this collection of builders, available homes and lots in Wimberley Place, contact Angie Waddle of Hillwood Residential at 972-201-2939.

Recreational amenities at Twin Creeks include two swim clubs, basketball courts, ball fields, playgrounds, tennis courts and a sand volleyball court.

The Golf Club at Twin Creeks features an 18-hole championship course.

To visit Wimberley Place in Twin Creeks, go north on U.S. Highway 75 and take the McDermott exit (Exit 34). Turn left at the traffic signal, proceed approximately 2 miles and turn right on Lakeway Drive to the entrance of Wimberley Place.

From the Dallas North Tollway, go east on State Highway 121. Turn right on Custer Road and left on McDermott. Turn left on Lakeway Drive to the entrance of Wimberley Place.

For more information, visit www.wimberleyplace.com or www.twincreeks.com.