

Prosper community features designs priced from $600s

12:00 AM CDT on Sunday, June 1, 2008

Christie Farms in Prosper features 48 acreage estates with 30 of them in Phase I.

The community provides gated access, seclusion and country living. Christie Farms is also minutes from the Dallas North Tollway and city conveniences in Frisco.

Luxury builders David R. Williams Homes and Castlemark Homes offer estates priced from the $600s to more than $1 million at the community.

Castlemark Homes is the luxury homebuilding division of the Mooreland Co., which specializes in commercial, mixed-use and high-end residential land development.

David R. Williams Homes provides architectural designs by some of the most-recognized residential designers in North Texas. Homes feature a variety of floor plans to take advantage of acreage homesites.

David R. Williams has been a member of the local, state and national homebuilders associations since 1978.

Homeowners will enjoy the country ambience the community provides. Residents can play golf at the adjacent Gentle Creek Golf Course and learn horse riding at the Whispering Farms Equestrian Center, which is west of Christie Farms on Prosper Trail.

With 53 12-by-12-foot custom-designed stalls, a 120-by-200-foot covered arena, a conference area that overlooks the riding arena, a lighted round pin, an outdoor arena, sand paddocks, trails and pasture turnouts, the equestrian center at Whispering Farms is a full-care facility with 24-hour manned staff.

The community is served by the Prosper Independent School District. A variety of private schools are also nearby in Plano, Frisco and McKinney.

Located north of U.S. Highway 380, Christie Farms offers access to numerous employment centers, medical facilities, retail centers, restaurants and sporting events in Frisco and north Plano.

To visit Christie Farms, go north on Preston Road and turn right on U.S. 380. Turn left on Custer Road. Christie Farms is 2 miles north of U.S. 380 on the left.
